

Victim Impact Statement

You have the right to give a statement to the court about how this crime has affected your life. Briefly describe, in your own words, the emotional, physical, and/or financial impact this crime has had on you. You should not simply state what happened, but rather how what happened has had an impact on our life. Attach additional pages, if necessary. Please be aware a copy must be provided to the defendant or the defense attorney. However, any personal identifying information is typically redacted, subject to court order in limited circumstances.

Please return your statement before the Final Pre-trial Conference.
